"You are authorized to obtain any information you may require regarding the statements made above. This application shall remain the property of the company. All statements made on this application are made for the purpose of obtaining credit. I understand that, in considering this application for credit, you will rely upon the statements contained herein. I have reviewed the information contained in this application, and I affirm that the foregoing statements are accurate and complete, and are made to induce Mid-America Trucking, Inc. to grant the applicant credit. I warrant that no information has been concealed or withheld which may be material to a proper consideration by you of this application." Applicant's signature attests financial responsibility, ability and willingness to pay our invoices in accordance with terms as explained. Invoices are due and payable net thirty (30) days from invoice date unless stated. Any outstanding balance unpaid on the date when due to Mid-America Trucking, Inc. shall be subject to finance charge of 1-1½% per month (or maximum allowed by law) of such balance until paid, together with Mid-America Trucking, Inc.'s costs of collection (including reasonable attorney's fees).
